Monday 6th July 2020

English

To learn some features of reptiles

In this lesson, we will learn some features of reptiles. We will be thinking about what makes reptiles unique and choose our favourite reptile to describe. You can extend this lesson by using an encyclopedia to compare reptiles to other animal groups, talking about the similarities and differences.

English

To justify an answer using the word 'because'

In this lesson, we will listen to the story of The Crocodile Who Didn't Like Water, by Gemma Merino. We answer questions about the story, justifying our answers with the word 'because' to support our communication skills. You can extend this lesson by researching dragons and considering how they differ from crocodiles.

English

To describe the features of a reptile

In this lesson, we will use our knowledge of reptiles to draw and describe a reptile of our choice. We will think carefully about what words to use and write some of them down. Please bring this description along to the next lesson, where we will write a reptile fact file.
