

Using Nouns and Verbs in Sentences

You are going to practise your spelling words by using them in sentences. For each spelling, look to see whether you are being asked to use the word as a noun or a verb.

challenge (noun): _____

damage (verb): _____

broadcast (noun): _____

benefit (verb): _____

charge (noun): _____

function (verb): _____

influence (noun): _____

interest (verb): _____

object (noun): _____

protest (verb): _____

★ ★
★ Challenge Task ★

Can you think of three more words that can be used as nouns and verbs?

Using Nouns and Verbs in Sentences Answers

You are going to practise your spelling words by using them in sentences. For each spelling, look to see whether you are being asked to use the word as a noun or a verb.

challenge (noun): Nisha found the cross-country race a really big challenge.

damage (verb): The fire had damaged the kitchen after Dad left the fish fingers under the grill.

broadcast (noun): The live broadcast was beamed directly to millions of households.

benefit (verb): The messy classroom would definitely benefit from a huge clean up.

charge (noun): The electrical charge ran through the serial circuit.

function (verb): After a sleepless night, the new mum could barely function the next day.

influence (noun): J.K. Rowling was a major influence on the author's own writing.

interest (verb): I have always been extremely interested in horses and riding.

object (noun): The precious object was stolen from the museum.

protest (verb): The parents all got together to protest about the SAT tests.

Challenge Task

Can you think of three more words that can be used as nouns and verbs?

Various answers possible, e.g. silence, support, transport, freeze, balance, etc.